

CABINET DECISIONS – 27 APRIL 2018

1. Cabinet has taken note of the outcome of the recent mission of Hon Pravind Kumar Jugnauth, Prime Minister to London where he participated in the 25th Commonwealth Heads of Government Meeting (CHOGM) and the meetings he had in connection with the Chagos Archipelago issue. The Heads of Government took note of the report of Foreign Ministers Meeting, the Commonwealth Ministerial Action Group, the High Level Group on Governance of the Commonwealth Secretariat and the Commonwealth Ministers' Meeting on Small States. Following discussions, CHOGM 2018 adopted a Communiqué entitled "Towards a Common Future" which is divided into four sub-themes namely: A Fairer Future, A More Prosperous Future, A More Sustainable Future and A More Secure Future.

The Prime Minister also attended –

- (a) the Commonwealth Heads of Government Retreat. The agenda included issues relating to the Mandate of the High Level Group on Governance of the Commonwealth Secretariat, the renewed role of the organisation, the succession to the Queen and the holding of the next CHOGM; and
- (b) three high level round table discussions organised by the Commonwealth Enterprise and Investment Council which brought together leaders of island States, African leaders and high level business leaders.

In the margins of the CHOGM, the Prime Minister had meetings with –

- (a) HE Mr Narendra Modi, Prime Minister of the Republic of India who invited him to be the Chief Guest at the Pravasi Bharatiya Divas next year and which would take place alongside the Kumbh Mela. The state of negotiations in relations to the Comprehensive Economic Cooperation Partnership Agreement was also reviewed;
- (b) HE Mr Gaston Alfonso Browne, Prime Minister of Antigua and Barbuda who expressed his thanks for the donation made by Mauritius, following the passage of Cyclone Irma over his country in 2017 and discussed issues of bilateral interest including support in the field of disaster risk reduction and education; and
- (c) the Prime Minister of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, the President of Rwanda, the Prime Minister of Jamaica, the Prime Minister of Singapore and the President of South Africa, among others, and discussions centred on issues of common interests for the strengthening of bilateral relations and also on securing their support on the Chagos Archipelagos issue.

The Prime Minister also had a meeting with the legal advisors on the Chagos Archipelago issue to, inter alia, review the situation regarding written submissions made to the International Court of Justice and the need to canvass countries to make oral submissions at the hearing scheduled to start on 3 September 2018 in The Hague. He also addressed the All Party Parliamentary Group (APPG) on the same issue. The APPG comprises members from the House of Lords and the House of Commons.
