

HIGHLIGHTS OF CABINET MEETING – FRIDAY 07 JANUARY 2022

1. Cabinet has agreed to the renewal of a Memorandum of Understanding between the Commonwealth Scholarship Commission of UK and the Ministry of Education, Tertiary Education, Science and Technology, for a period of three years. The Commonwealth Scholarship Commission offers scholarships at post graduate level to Mauritian nationals on a yearly basis through the Ministry of Education, Tertiary Education, Science and Technology.

The Memorandum of Understanding clarifies the existing rules and processes of the Nominating Agency and the Commonwealth Scholarship Commission for promotion of the Commonwealth Scholarship Commission's programmes for the nomination and selection of candidates. The new provisions of the Memorandum of Understanding aim at enlarging the Nominating Agency's commitment towards Commonwealth Scholarship Commission's safeguarding policies as follows –

- (a) parity between the number of men and women to be nominated;
- (b) the use of electronic communication; and
- (c) the signature of a separate legally binding Data Protection Agreement.

2. Cabinet has agreed to the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding between the Competition Commission of Mauritius and the Competition Commission of India. The Memorandum of Understanding would cover, inter alia, the following areas of collaboration –

- (a) technical cooperation activities related to competition law enforcement and policy;
- (b) training courses on competition law and policy;
- (c) assistance in promoting the understanding of sound competitive policy among government agencies, business communities, bar associations, academic institutions, and other important supporting institutions;
- (d) cooperation in investigations on related competition matters; and
- (e) seek advice and communicate on matters of competition law enforcement and policy.

3. Cabinet has agreed to the List of Indicative Priority Fields of Study 2021-2023 document that has been approved by the Board of the Higher Education Commission. The list serves a four-fold purpose, namely –

- (a) it guides prospective higher education students in their choice of fields of study at tertiary level, with a view to enhancing their competencies and their potential for employability after graduation;
- (b) it assists Higher Education Institutions in the review of existing programmes and in the design of new ones, while also providing a framework for capacity building;
- (c) it acts as a reference document for students applying for scholarships awarded by the Ministry of Education, Tertiary Education, Science and Technology such that they may opt for fields of study that are contributory to the development of the country; and
- (d) it guides potential investors in the field of Higher Education with regard to the offer of programmes in areas of scarcity and of national priority.

4. Cabinet has agreed to extend Government support under –

- (a) the Wage Assistance Scheme and the Self-Employed Assistance Scheme to workers and self-employed individuals of the tourism sector in Rodrigues for an additional period of three months after the opening of its borders. An employer would be required to undertake not to lay off any employee during that period, failing which Government may claim back the assistance paid; and
- (b) the Wage Assistance Scheme to employees of bus operators providing public transport for the months of November and December 2021, provided that the employer undertakes not to lay off any worker up to 31 March 2022.

5. Cabinet has agreed to the promulgation of the following Regulations –

- (a) the Construction Industry Development Board (Amendment of Schedule) Regulations 2022;
- (b) the Construction Industry Development Board (Conversion of Grade of Contractors) Regulations 2022;
- (c) the Construction Industry Development Board (Registration of Consultants, Contractors, Service Providers and Suppliers) (Amendment) Regulations 2022;
- (d) the Construction Industry Development Board (Appeal Fee) (Amendment) Regulations 2022; and
